

The correct way to edge your lawn at the seawall

From the City of Punta Gorda Citizens Academy presentation. The purpose of allowing the sod to grow over the cap is to prevent erosion behind the seawall cap. If sod is trimmed behind the cap, it creates a gap, and eventually the rain run-off will erode the area. A lot of times Property owners allow the grass to be higher than the seawall, creating positive flow for rain run-off.

GRASS EDGING

The Correct way to edge

The Wrong way to edge